

3.3 November Institute

This is normally a 4-5 days study programme held during the year-end school holidays (i.e. November) and is available to all Christians. Courses may be taken for audit or credit. Each course/seminar offered is for 1 unit and all MBS students are normally required to participate in this programme before they begin their long vacation.